14th Annual "A Taste of Little Italy"

Sunday, September 18, 2011 (3:00 pm - 7:00 pm)

In addition to featuring nearly 200 wines, food and desserts from Cleveland's finest Italian restaurants, "A Taste Of Little Italy" features both silent and live auctions with dozens of items donated from area restaurants, businesses and art galleries.

More than 1,000 people are expected to attend Cleveland's most authentic Italian cultural event, in support of the outstanding educational experience offered by the Montessori School at Holy Rosary.

The Montessori School at Holy Rosary is a non-profit, urban school dedicated to developing children's emerging potential according to the principles of Dr. Maria Montessori, an Italian physician and child advocate. The school has become an integral part of Cleveland's Little Italy neighborhood, where students are immersed in Italian language and culture.

Tickets include all food and drinks!
